

Civil Air Patrol
Texas Wing Conference 2010
Citizens Serving Communities: Above and Beyond

A Dream Spa Day Offered at Wing Conference

Ladies and gentlemen, what would you give for one day at a fine beauty/restorative spa enjoying the royal treatment, that you truly deserve? You'll have to come and register at the Texas Wing Conference on April 24, 2010 at the Embassy Suites Hotel in San Marcos. There, in the company of your peers and friends, you'll be able to join the auction for this special opportunity. Debbie Ford says, "Ladies and gentlemen, don't forget to bring some money."

The Spa at Canyon Oaks is a country retreat day spa nestled on a 32-acre ranch in Crawford, Texas. It is a full-service salon offering personalized service for women and men that guarantees relaxation. The owners have generously donated a spa day valued at $250, which includes an hour massage, a signature facial, signature manicure, signature pedicure, lite-lunch, and a spa t-shirt.

There are other wonderful and desirable donated items to be auctioned off at the Texas Wing Conference, but this one is sure to be the chosen by many members.

You can't win it unless you bid on it...

~ No Federal Endorsement Intended ~