On behalf of the entire Wing Staff, I would like to welcome you to the 2018 Texas Wing Conference. Our theme for this conference is: "Dedicated to Serve".

Excellence has been achieved in 2017 by you, the Texas Wing Senior and Cadet membership. Your dedication to serve has been able to exceed exceptions and continue to distinguish Texas wing. As volunteer professionals, we all have a responsibility to continue to improve and strive for greatness in performing Civil Air patrols missions.

We have 8 per-conference classes, 45 breakout sessions on Saturday, award presentations at lunch and dinner. Along with two Spaatz presentations, and 2 Congressional Gold Medal presentations.

Mark E. Smith, CAP National Commander, Col Joe Smith, SWR Commander, members of National Staff, Board of Governors, Maj. Gen. Teresa Marné Peterson (Ret), and Col. Dale E. Newell, and Lt Gen Douglas H. Owens, USAF (Ret) as our key note speaker during the banquet. Thank you for coming to conference and for your Dedicated Service to Texas Wing and Civil Air Patrol. Enjoy the Conference!

Conference Key Note Speaker

Lt Gen Douglas H. Owens, USAF (ret)

Lt. Gen. Douglas H. Owens is Vice Commander, Air Education and Training Command, Joint Base San Antonio-Randolph, Texas. AETC recruits, trains and educates Air Force people and includes the Air Force Recruiting Service, a numbered air force and Air University. The command is responsible for 12 main operating bases, more than 67,000 active-duty, Reserve, Guard, civilians and contractors, and more than 1,300 trainer, fighter and mobility aircraft. AETC graduates approximately 250,000 students in its education and training programs annually.

General Owens graduated from the U.S. Air Force Academy in 1980. He has commanded at the squadron, group and wing levels, and served in a variety of operational and staff positions. These include assignments in the Headquarters U.S. Air Force Checkmate Division and Operations Directorate on the Joint Staff, supporting operations Iraqi Freedom and Enduring Freedom and others worldwide. He has also served as a numbered air force vice commander and as deputy commander of a joint task force for Pacific Command.

He is a command pilot with more than 3,100 hours in various aircraft, including the T-6, T-37, T-38, T-41 and A/OA-10. He served as a T-38 and T-41 instructor pilot and flew combat missions in the first A-10 squadron deployed to operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm. General Owens has served five tours in the Pacific, including his previous assignment as Vice Commander of Pacific Air Forces supporting combat readiness, theater security cooperation, enhanced force posture and presence throughout the theater.

Aerospace/STEM Education Partners for the Future

The AFA is offering a 2-year complimentary membership in the AFA to CAP members! If not already an AFA member, become a member of the AFA -- at NO cost! CAP is offering AFA members the chance to become a "Friend of CAP" for two years - at NO cost. AFA members not already CAP members should take advantage of this special opportunity. (Note: special Coupon Code was sent to AFA members in a December 15, 2017 e-mail.)

The Air Force Association has long supported the Civil Air Patrol, the official Auxiliary of the United States Air Force. The missions of both organizations include the need to educate the general public about the importance of aerospace power, both now and in the future. Science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) education initiatives are paramount in fulfilling this mission, and both the AFA and CAP provide a multitude of K-12 STEM opportunities for young people.

CAP and AFA agree: producing patriotic and technologically-prepared future citizens is of prime importance in maintaining global competitiveness and national security.

The two organizations have joined hands to collaborate, join each other’s organization, leverage resources, and work toward the same goal of preparing to defend our nation with the strength of air, space and cyber power. Specifically, each organization brings unique alliance contributions.
A Congressional Gold Medal was awarded collectively Dec. 10, 2014 to the World War II members of the Civil Air Patrol (CAP) during a ceremony in Emancipation Hall in the U.S. Capitol Visitor Center.

The medal, designed and struck by the United States Mint, recognizes the organization for their humanitarian, combat, and national services during a critical time for our nation.

The CAP began operations under the Office of Civilian Defense on Dec. 1, 1941, one week before the United States entered World War II. Within a few months, the unpaid volunteers became involved in military operations by assisting the U.S. Army and the U.S. Navy. Using privately owned aircraft and personal funding, the CAP members performed numerous essential tasks in support of the military and the nation, including armed convoy and antisubmarine patrols off the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

The CAP served the nation from March 1942 to August 1943. The heroic aircrew is credited with escorting more than 5,600 convoys, reporting 173 U-boats and attacking 57, flying 86,685 total
